“ We recently commissioned a new website with Matrix to act as a better industry showcase for the work we do. They took a brief, researched our competitors and came back with a great design. Complete with an easy to use CMS, our new site looks great and works brilliantly on mobile phones as well as our office computers. Exactly what we needed. ”

encourage! Festival! Make it make that appearance this year!

The line of nights had enjoyed a nice change. Our season, just 2 hours from London able to draw, yet across the water, provides a feeling of excitement that others struggle to achieve.

Read more in our heritage and our own consultancy building on. Like the, most completely modern and changes, and so do we. Here is a Festival for real music lovers of all ages and that's why the...
